Simple monthly calendar for 2021 from Landeelu This month, the sun is changing from playful Sagittarius to hardworking Capricorn-and lucky Jupiter goes with it! Jupiter, the planet of health and wealth, has been its home sign of Sagittarius for the past year, helping you expand your reach and play bigger in whatever arena in your life it touched. But when it moves into Capricorn on the 2nd, it's time for you to turn these ideas into reality through hard work and smart business moves. When Jupiter syncs up with visionary Uranus on the 15th, an unexpected opportunity helps you get a foot in the door. Still, the biggest moment this month comes on the 26th, when a superpowered Capricorn solar eclipse (amplified by Jupiter) gives you a head start against your most ambitious 2020 goals. The universe has a huge holiday gift with your name on it, but you have to banish any doubt in your mind that you don't deserve it. You've earned this, so stay focused, stay strong, and get ready for a great month! Original illustration by Stephanie DeAngelis If you've felt it's time to play bigger at work, you're absolutely right! Expansion planet Jupiter is moving into your professional sector at the 2nd, kicking off a year of unprecedented performance and growth that could lead you straight to the C-suite. It is in sync with the surprise planet Uranus on the 15th, you will need to act quickly to make the most of this opportunity. An unexpected message arrives during the Gemini full moon on the 12th that requires some adjustments to your grand plan, but healing Chiron directly in your sign the same day ensures that whatever they are will be good for you in the long run. You'll probably be too busy celebrating your victory to worry too much about it anyway, especially after the sun joins the party in your career zone, turning up your professional shine even more. But your biggest come-up arrives on the 26th, when the Capricorn solar eclipse (co-signed by lucky Jupiter) marks the start of a new, bigger job or form of employment that feels more like a vocation than a daily grind. It's been a long time coming, and now that it's here, you wouldn't have it any other way. Original illustration by Stephanie DeAngelis With Lucky Jupiter in your wanderlust sector on the 2nd, your coming year is set to be quite the trip! Whether you make a writing or media project, media project, a new language, or get lots of fresh ink in your passport, you will seriously expand your reach. Having the Gemini full moon on the 12th, you may have a few doubts about how you will fund this adventure, but Jupiter in sync with the surprise planet Uranus in your sign of the 15th. It's a leap of faith, but one that's totally worth it in the end. When love goddess Venus moves into your professional sector on the 20th, you will be able to win over any patrons, bosses or mentors with ease. By the time the Capricorn solar eclipse joins the action on the 26th, you'll be ready to step out of your comfort zone and into your latest journey, which may just turn out to be your wildest yet. Original illustration by Stephanie DeAngelis Your cheerful character is poised to get serious over the next twelve months, as lucky Jupiter moves into Capricorn, your intimacy sector, for a year-long stay starting on July 2. With talkative Mercury in your relationship zone on the 9th, expect this to start with some important conversations with your loved ones, especially romantic partners—about what comes next, like getting frisky, sharing emotions, or even attending your bank accounts. (If you're single, this might just as easily be checking in with yourself about your wishes and needs!) Taking the full moon in your sign on the 12th, ask for what you really want, even if it's difficult. Fortunately, Jupiter in sync with independent Uranus on July 15, 2015. By the time the sun, solar eclipse, and Mercury join in on Capricorn action at 21st, 26th, and 28th, you will be ready to step forward in uncharted emotional territory. Yes, you're groundbreaking, but you'll get so much love if you're willing to dive deep in 2020. Original illustration by Stephanie DeAngelis With lucky Jupiter in your relationships zone on the 2nd, you really are the company you keep and you will keep company with some pretty impressive people over the next twelve months! Your powers of attraction will be at an all-time high, so whether you're looking for a lover, creative partner, or best friend, you can just find a soulmate this year. Keep your eyes open on the 15th when the surprise planet Uranus sends someone unexpected but absolutely perfect your way. Meanwhile, a Gemini full moon in your house of endings at 12th helps you tie up any emotional loose ends and gain some hard-striving perspective before forging ahead with any new bonds. Thanks to the sun entering Capricorn on the 21st and a serendipitous solar eclipse in the same sign of the 26th, the universe puts you right where you need to be to meet the people who will become your new support system or cement your relationship with those who have been by your side all along. Original illustration by Stephanie DeAngelis There's a lot to love about lucky Jupiter moving into your wellness zone on the 2nd for a year-long stay. If you have been in a shed, this energy will help motivate you to start a routine that is much more supportive of your body, mind and soul. It's also great for taking a step up in the office, too! When rebellious Uranus syncs up with Jupiter on the 15th, you can have the sudden urge to break with the way you've done things as it relates to health and wealth. Could it be time for a personal trainer, spa day, or Marie Kondo-style cleansing? Whatever you decide on, it's a welcome change of pace. With a Gemini full moon lighting up your groups sector on the 12th, you may find that some in your circles are jealous of your personal growth. It's okay, it's okay! When you do it better, it reminds them that they could do more, too.
